

Delores Sexton Memorial Scholarship

Delores Sexton (1931-2000) grew up in rural Valley Center and graduated from the University of Wichita. She and her husband, Linwood, moved to rural Halstead in 1961 where they raised their son, Eric. She taught 5th and 6th grades in Wichita Public Schools for 30 years and enjoyed her friends at Wedgewood Golf Course and Club Amicarum in Halstead. Her guiding philosophy as an educator was that every child can succeed, and it was her job to bring it out of them. This scholarship honors her devotion to education and the advancement of her beloved Halstead community.
